

I am in support of making sure that ISP's are not swallowed up by big companies like Verizon etc. when they disappear, people like myself lose a real voice, prices are dictated by the big corporations and service in general is much less responsive. BerkshireNet has been exceptionally reliable and responsive. Thanks for taking my comments into consideration. Sandra Schoffstall